

Cherry Lips (go Baby Go!)

Garbage

She gave you everything she had
But she was young and dumb
She'd just turned twenty-one
She didn't care to hang around
So when the shit came down
Why she was nowhere to be found?
This life can turn a good girl bad
She was the sweetest thing
That you had ever seen
You're such a delicate boy
In the hysterical realm
Of an emotional landslide
In physical terms
With your cherry lips and golden curls
You could make grown men gasp
When you'd go walking past them
In your hot pants and high heels
They could not believe
That such a body was for real
It seemed like rainbows would appear
Whenever you came near
The clouds would disappear
Because you looked just like a girl
Your baby, blues would flash
And suddenly a spell was cast
You're such a delicate boy
In the hysterical realm
Of an emotional landslide
In physical terms
You hold a candle in your heart
You shine the light on hidden parts
You make the whole world wanna dance
You bought yourself a second chance
Go, baby, go, go
We're right behind you
Go, baby, go, go
Yeah, we're lookin' at you
Go, baby, go, go
Aw, we're right behind you

Go baby, go baby
Yeah, right behind you
Go baby, go baby
Aw, we're right behind you
Go baby, go baby
Yeah, we're looking at you
Go baby, go baby
Go baby, go baby
Yeah, we're looking at you
You hold a candle in your heart
You shine the light on hidden parts
You make the whole world wanna dance
You bought yourself a second chance
Go baby, go baby, go
Delicate boy
Go baby, go baby, go
In physical terms
Go
Go, baby, go, go
