7 Ways

Abs

I don't know who, but it wasn't me
He wasn't all that you'd thought he'd be
And then broke your heart
Girl you should have let me know
'Cause you left it kind of hard for me to show
Just how it feels when I'm next to you
'Cause them other girls ain't nothing next to you
No doubt in my mind 'cause I know it's you
So tell me lady what you wanna do
'Cause loving you, it's all that I know girl, why would I lie?
If you want me to, I'll give you just a little more time to decide
If I could be your anything, 'cause you to me are everything
I'm talking to the mirror at 5am
Waiting for your call in the pouring rain
Sugar coated kiss and a lipstick mark
There are 7 ways of breaking my heart
Wasted conversation and bad TV
Loosing our original chemistry
Walking like I'm dancing on priceless art
There are 7 ways of breaking my heart
Turn off the TV, we need to talk about the way
'Cause I thought I heard you say
Something 'bout not being there for you
So what do I have to do to show I care for you
I'm saying I could be the one, no more playing girls for fun
Baby let me prove I got just what you need
If you give me half a chance to romance you
'Cause you make me feel complete
'Cause loving you is all that I know girl, why would I lie?
If you want me to, I'll give you just a little more time to decide
If I could be your anything, 'cause you to me are everything
I'm talking to the mirror at 5am
Waiting for your call in the pouring rain
Sugar coated kiss and a lipstick mark
There are 7 ways of breaking my heart
Wasted conversation and bad TV
Loosing our original chemistry
Walking like I'm dancing on priceless art
There are 7 ways of breaking my heart

A couple of nights gone by
She ain't called yet and I don't know why
Could it be I didn't give enough attention or was it
Something I said or didn't mention
Slow down, too damn fast
Bounce with another chick with a fine ass
Not me, got the other girl on hold
I was on line 2 she was going all cold
'Cause loving you is all that I know girl, why would I lie?
If you want me to I'll give you just a little more time to decide
If I could be your anything 'cause you to me are everything
I'm talking to the mirror at 5am
Waiting for your call in the pouring rain
Sugar coated kiss and a lipstick mark
There are 7 ways of breaking my heart
Wasted conversation and bad TV
Loosing our original chemistry
Walking like I'm dancing on priceless art
There are 7 ways of breaking my heart
