

Let's Be Real

Jibbs

Deep inside you know the truth
He don't really love you
Baby, you've gotta face the truth
You know I'ma keep it real with you, let's be real
It was December in the Chi when I saw you walking by
With the tears in your eyes and I walked up to your side
So I asked you how you feel, "Girl, is everything alright?"
I want you to keep it real girl, you ain't gotta lie
See that dude is a mark, a predator and a shark
And I knew that from the start, he wanted to break your heart
You ain't gotta think twice 'cause I ain't that type of guy
I'd rather see you happy, I don't want to see you cry
Let's be real, come on now
Let's be real, he got no love
Like I have for you, really feeling bad for you
Out of all of this time he never had love I have for you
Deep inside you know the truth
He don't really love you
Baby, you've gotta face the truth
You know I'ma keep it real with you, let's be real
He disrespect ya, he don't protect ya
I know it hurts but you got to keep your head up
He doesn't love ya but I can treat you better
That's why I think me and you should be together
He doesn't need ya, bet I can please ya
He doesn't trust ya, forever tryin' to treat ya
He try to test ya, look at ya texture
You should tell him, tell him that he really got you messed up

Tell him to beat it, me in your life you need it
I'm willing to do whatever, you really can't beat it
I'm your keeper, my words you need to keep it
Fresher, I can be the reason why you breathing
Deep inside you know the truth
He don't really love you
Baby, you've gotta face the truth
You know I'ma keep it real with you, let's be real
He disrespect ya, he don't protect ya
When you in need he don't hurry to catch ya

Hurt and neglect ya, certain to stress ya
I ain't your daddy girl, you can do whatever
Let's be for real, come on now
Let's be for real, you know what's up
Let's be for real, come on now
Let's be for real, na na na na
It's best you let him go or you will never know
What we could be, why can't you see? He ain't the one for you
It's best you let him go or you will never know
What we could be, why can't you see? He ain't one for you
Deep inside you know the truth
He don't really love you
Baby, you've gotta face the truth
You know I'ma keep it real with you, let's be real
He don't really love you
