

Face Down

Unloco

I sign at the world
Because you don't seem to care and if i grow old Then you were never there And yet it's hard just to find And how i could justify the only way back inside
And lie face down
The only way I could let this go by taking what is deep inside And lie face down And if i could
Then you were so over this And then we face it's soul I'm face down and no one knows (x2)
And if i Bleed
The i will bleed for you and it's hard to see to see what i see in you An I just realized that everything that i fear is back in my face only again
So put me out on this floor
'cause that's the way i've been Since i lied down since i LIED down And if i could
Then you were so over this And then we face it's soul I'm face down and no one knows (x2)
I feel it's the same thing I've had Since i fell here, I fear I sign at the world and if i grow old Because you don't care
Then you will never come back!!!! I'm face down and no one knows (x2)
I feel it's the same thing I've had Since i fell here, I fear I'M FACE DOWN AND NO ONE KNOWS
