

Forever Yours

Sunrise Avenue

There are times I can leave my heart wide open
There are days I believe I can heal wounds on me
There are times I could come to you and hurt you

I could easily bring you tears
I could send you to hell, I know you

I will find something more
Someone I am made for
Shame on you, baby
Forever yours

I will find something more
Someone I am made for
Shame on you, baby
Forever yours

You were mine and I was yours for one night
You were mine and there is no one who's like me
These screams, they wake me up in the night

They violently fill up my room
They keep me awake, I hate you

(x7)

I will find something more
Someone I am made for
Shame on you, baby
Forever more
