

Disgrace

Sevendust

I remember
Almost every time I felt love
Descend down
And break away until it was goneMy every thought
Stuck inside the hell
That reminds me
That I've just given upWeighing down my soul
the thought of it's too much
When I think about it allCan I still find a place
Where my mind stops all the suffering?
Will I live in my disgrace
On and on?So I see now
All I ever wanted was peace
Inside a
Mind that's always running from meWhere is the sunlight
Where's the repair?
For all the damage
I have doneWeighing down my soul
The thought of it's too much
When I think about it allCan I still find a place
Where my mind stops all the suffering?
Will I live in my disgrace
On and on?Weighing down my soulCan I still find a place
Where my mind stops all the suffering?
Will I live in my disgrace
On and on?Can I still find a place
Where my mind stops all the suffering?
Will I live in my disgrace
On and on?Weighing down my soul
