

Goldfish

Until the Ribbon Breaks

[Intro]

Maybe in another life.

If we get another life

Maybe in that life

Maybe in another time[Verse 1]

Where is your guilt from

Is it just imaginary?

It is your hope that I feel sorry for;
the one you bury.

The pressure breaks the levee.

You've got a nerve...or you're just nervous.

I'ma try to change your world

I pray for change

I'd like to thank you for my fear

I've used it well

I trust nobody here

but I'm not the same as you.[Chorus]

You're just a gold fish swimmin in a bowl

Stay up on the surface

Nobody will know its you

Your just as scared as them

You don't know where to go home

You're just a lighthouse nobody can see[Verse 2]

This is my bird song this is my call

This is a mirror hang it on the wall and you will see nothing

I have the heart. I just couldn't put my mind to it, and maybe your the other way around.

You see the picture you just can't connect the sound

I broke the silence you forgot the glue

I try my best because I'm not the same as you, no.[Chorus]

You're just a gold fish swim'n in a bowl

Stay up on the surface

Nobody will know its you

Your just as scared as them

You don't know where to go home

You're just a lighthouse nobody can see

You never prayed for me.[Post Chorus]

Wo oh Wo ooooh Wo

If this is what you want
Then good luck and be gone
Wo oh Wo oooooh Wo
If this is what you need
Then good luck and godspeed. Wo oh Wo oooooh Wo
And at the same we sleep You're just a lighthouse nobody can see
You never prayed for me[x4]
Wo oh Wo oooooh Wo[x2]
We're not the same
