

Always (Alternate Acoustic Version)

Switchfoot

This is the star, this is your heart
This is the day you were born
This is the sun, these are your lungs
This is the day you were born And I am always, always, always yours
And I am always, always, always yours These are the scars deep in your heart
This is the place you were born
And this is the hole where most of your soul comes ripping out
From the places you've been torn And it is always, always, always yours
And I am always, I'm always, I'm always yours Hallelujah, I'm caving in Hallelujah, I'm in love again
Hallelujah, I'm a wretched man
Hallelujah, every breath is a second chance, yeah And it is always, always, always yours
And I am always, I'm always, always yours
Always, always, I'm always yours, I'm yours
Always, always, I am always yours
