

Nothing That You Are

Mandy Moore

Somebody told me they saw you somewhere
Somebody hold me 'cause suddenly I'm a little cold
Well I must be mistaking you for somebody else
Know you all too well or do I?
I heard you say we were one and the same
Well, wrong again
I could never do those things you did to me
I will be okay, in time, you'll fade
Into the nothing that you are, the nothing you are
Somebody sold me, yeah, the same old story
Hadn't you told me you were there the whole time
Well I must be mistaking you for somebody else
I hope you burn in hell or do I?
I heard you say we were one and the same
Well, wrong again
I could never do those things you did to me
I will be okay, in time, you'll fade
Into the nothing that you are, the nothing you are
I know your mistakes will hunt you down eventually
You'll know that when you hit the ground
Your weakness did you in and dealt me out
It's okay, I have the truth on my side
I heard you say we were one and the same
Well, wrong again
I could never do those things you did to me
I will be okay, in time, you'll fade
Into the nothing that you are, the nothing you are
The nothing you are
The nothing you are
The nothing you are
