Just Fools

Ghoti Hook

So what's the point to stay away
It hurts the same either way
We'll hang out when you come home
And I'll still end up alone
But that's the choice I have made
Who thought I would end up here
In the same place after three years
I never was this way before
I never wanted something more
And now I can't just walk awayPlease don't look at me I can't stand
To see you cry
It kills me to know that I'm the only reason why
Sometimes I want to try and forget
What I know
Instead of watching myself try
To let you goRemember when you said to me
One two three words and what you'd be Always there so always know
That no matter if you go
I will still be right herePlease don't look at me I can't stand
To see you cry
It kills me to know that I'm the only reason why
Sometimes I want to try and forget
What I know
Instead of watching myself try
To let you goMaybe I'm wrong and maybe your right
Or maybe were just fools
Caught up in something
Something that we don't Know what to do with Something that we can't Handle just yetPlease don't look at me I can't stand
To see you cry
It kills me to know that I'm the only reason why
Sometimes I want to try and forget
What I know

Instead of watching myself try
To let you
