Universe

Scars on Broadway

The line is drawn up in the sand
Is this the way to no-where land?
You never seen the sky like this
You never wanna die like thisComets falling for the earth
Is this the end, or a rebirth?
You never seen the sky like this
You never wanna die like thisMother, are we flying through the universe?
Are we dying through the universe?Fire burning on the sun
It's killing almost everyone
You never seen the sky like this
You never wanna die like thisDancing in the acid rain
That's falling on the streets of shame
You never seen the sky like this
You never wanna die like thisMother, are we flying through the universe?
Are we dying through the universe?
We are crying to you
Mother, are we flying through the universe?
Are we dying through the universe?Mother, are we flying through the universe?
Are we dying through the universe?
We are crying to you
Mother, are we flying through the universe?
Are we dying in the universe?Comets falling for the earth
Is this the end, or a rebirth?
You never seen the sky like this
You never wanna die like this
