

Mama Should've Told Me (feat. Z Ro)

Just Brittany

If mama wouldn'tve told me there be hatin ass niggas that be caught up in they feelings while they counting your fingers

If mama would've told me there would be plotting ass hoes that be smiling in yo face while they stealing your doe

If mama would've told me there be backstabbing friends when you can't do nothing for them they be gone with the wind.

If mama would've tole me

If mama would've told me

If mama would've told me not to trust these niggas then i wouldn't started wilding out and fucking with these bitches i learned you can't call a stripper your bestfriend we was working at platinum city i was giving you my ends had to pay my mama rent had to take care of my shit and i was getting used by these hoes and didn't realize it.

First fell in love when i was only sixteen but back then i didn't know didn't know what it mean then i fell in love with the money i was all about my business i was young and wanting attention mama said slow down i wouldn't listen
one thing she said
"don't open your legs to every guy you meet, respect is everything."

but i learned the hard way even though mama warned me mistakes turned into lessons that i learned along the journey and I've walked for some miles but i hold my head proud because mama always told me to kill them with a smile.

If mama wouldn'tve told me there be hatin ass niggas

If mama would've told me there be backstabbing friends when you can't do nothing for them they be gone with
the wind.

No wonder why my attitude is fuck all y'all and all y'all can kiss my ass even though we related, do i trust y'all nah y'all just here to try and get my cash but i ain't having none of that bullshit woman you better believe ain't trying to hear nothing you trying to say i think it's just better if you would just leave i'm sick and tired of being sick and tired taking care of all y'all roaching off me all month when the first get here now where all y'all

if you think i don't know what you told so and so about me man i'm so up it don't even register when y'all be trying to doubt me finally i found me i was never looking for you bitch if i would've known back then what i know right now.

i would've had my on plane on four right now i would've helped myself instead helping others i would've been in a better position thankful to be a millionaire but i could've been a billionaire looking at my life just wishing i would've did it different but i'm not mad though

I got a bag hoe and it's large

It don't mean nothing but it still feel good to see all of the vehicles in my garage

Kill these hoes

mama said to

kill these hoes

(ohh, ohh, oh)

If mama wouldn'tve told me there be (hatin ass niggas) hatin ass niggas that be caught up in they feelings (Fronting ass bitches)

that be smiling in yo face while they stealing your doe (I don't fuck with y'all)

If mama would've told me there be backstabbing friends when you can't do nothing for them they be gone with
the wind.
