

Simple Things

Armin van Buuren

Wasted days, I'm caught up in the fruitless chase
Wanting more than anything that's come before And I wish I didn't have to choose
When I know there is so much to lose Cruel desires blind me to the simple things
Lost in fires of passionate imaginings
Cruel desires blind me to the simple things
Lost in fires of passionate imaginings Simple things, simple things Holding out, feeling that it just might come
Cursing doubt that keeps you from the perfect one
And I wish I didn't have to choose
When I know there is so much to lose Cruel desires blind me to the simple things
Lost in fires of passionate imaginings
Cruel desires blind me to the simple things
Lost in fires of passionate imaginings
