

Enemy Within

Arch Enemy

Dark thoughts rise up
Deep in your mind
The killing of hope
The end has begunThe locked psycho-door breaks down
The beast breathes freedom and fire
Blows bloody thoughts into your mind
Demons whisper: "COMMIT SUICIDE!"Weak is your body,
Helpless your soul,
The beast destroyed your will
Left nothing but an empty shellDark thoughts rise up
Deep in your mind
The killing of hope
The end has begunSelf-destruction leads its way
Your weapons turn against yourself
Cutting through, killing you
A downward spiral, the shadowbeast has wonThe shadowbeast calls
A vulture of life
Your worst enemy dwells
From withinWeak is your body,
Helpless your soul,
The beast destroyed your will
Left nothing but an empty shellThe shadowbeast calls
A vulture of life
From within
