God

Joann Rosario

Oh Thou who knowest my beginning
Thou who created the plan
Who orchestrated my life's journey
God, You are my GodGod of decisions, Creator of answers
Thou who ordained my way
Through my transition, held my position
God, You are my GodI will forever give You praise
Honor and celebrate Your name
God of the past, present and Who is to come
Oh, God, You are my GodOh Thou, who knowest my beginning
Thou who created the plan
Who orchestrated my life's journey
God, You are my GodI will forever give You praise
Honor and celebrate Your name
God of the past, present and Who is to come
Oh God, You are my GodI will forever give You praise
Honor and celebrate Your name
God of the past, present and Who is to come
Who is to comeWhatever You do with me it's alright
You have my total trust, You have my trust
Glory and honor, dominion and power
God, You are my GodGod, oh God
You are the only wise God
God, oh God
You are the only wise GodGod, oh God
You are the only wise God
God, oh God
You are the only wise GodOh Thou who knowest my beginning
God, You are my GodGod, You are my God
God, You are my God
God, You are my God
