!Shy

Chris Palser

so shy
came over to me and asked if I wouldn't mind
afraid she'd waste my time all right
almost became the hero twice
what a waste
one taste
made my lonely life becomeso bright girl
I can see the sunset in your eyes it warms me
it burns me
it almost leaves me blindso shy before you came the change that I didn't see
I need
I wouldn't have changed your mind
all right
I couldn't believe the worst was I didn't see
I need
all I could feel was lightoutta me outta time
I agree
outta line
don't wanna see
don't wanna do
then when I met you
I was getting old before my time when you came you know that I remember thinking never seen it ever looking
