

Who Can Compare

Paul Wilbur

You rule the oceans and the seas, subdue the storm tossed waves for me

God You are awesome

All of heaven declares Your name; wondrous beauty, Your majesty

God You are awesome Who can compare, who can compare to Your great love

None can compare, none can compare to all You've done El Elyon (El Elyon), You're the name above all names

El Shaddai (El Shaddai), mine heart cannot contain all You are

And Your faithfulness endures forever

El Shaddai, Elohail, Adon Olam

El Shaddai, Elohail, Adon Olam Our hearts were captive, You set us free

You storm the darkest place for me; God You are awesome

All the earth will sing Your praise; knees will bow, tongues proclaim

God You are awesome Who can compare, who can compare to Your great love

None can compare, none can compare to all You've done El Elyon (El Elyon), You're the name above all names

El Shaddai (El Shaddai), mine heart cannot contain all You are

And Your faithfulness endures forever

El Shaddai, Elohail, Adon Olam

El Shaddai, Elohail, Adon Olam Your faithfulness endures forever; You are rock on which I stand

Your covenant, our firm foundation and Your name is lifted high Who can compare, who can compare to Your great love

None can compare, none can compare to all You've done El Elyon (El Elyon), You're the name above all names

El Shaddai (El Shaddai), mine heart cannot contain all You are

And Your faithfulness endures forever

El Shaddai, Elohail, Adon Olam

El Shaddai, Elohail, Adon Olam
