New Music

Drew Seeley

You come from a different world
But one I'd like to get to know
But all the things I want you to see
Are not the things that tell you to show
This thing could be so easy
I don't know why I make it hard
Maybe you will understand me
With some help from my guitarYou're like new music to me
And I just wanna learn you in every key
You're like the perfect melody
And I just wanna learn you in every keyI come from a different world
But one you don't quite understand
But what you sees not always what you get
Don't wanna fight
Who I am, what I am
I'm a man but I'm scared of you
Cause I never met a girl so real
Such a good kind of frear that you're making me feel
When music makes me feelYou're like new music to me
And I just wanna learn you in every key
You're like the perfect melody
And I just wanna learn you in every key
