Right Here (feat. Affinity)

Ezemdi

I don't know how long I can pretend
That I want to be just your friend
Believe me when I say you don't need him
Baby girl I'm right here
What's the use of holding on too
Someone that claims he loves you
By taking out the hanger on your face
Even when I'm right here
So I'll leave it up to you
Believe me when I say these words are true
Even when your nights are black and blue
Baby I'll be right there
No need to dry the tears from your eyes
I'll be there to hold you when you cry
No need to keep the pain so deep inside
Baby I'm right here

Baby I'm right here
Baby I'm right here
Baby I'm right here
Baby I'm right here

How can you keep denying
That he's not the cause for your pain
Blaming your self it doesn't help
Your sanity girl is killing me
Seeing you with bruises
Anytime that he chooses
To put his hands on you
Something a real man won't do
No need to dry the tears from your eyes
I'll be there to hold you when you cry
No need to keep the pain so deep inside
Baby I'm right here

Baby I'm right here
Baby I'm right here
Baby I'm right here

Baby I'm right here

We are in a state of emergency
And I don't know if we can save this Please tell me if we should move on
How can I stay claim if you can't stay strong
Your skin ain't tough enough
To hold back this pain
Hurt Leake's through your pores
And it hurts that I'm not yours
But baby I'm right here

No need to dry the tears from your eyes
I'll be there to hold you when you cry
No need to keep the pain so deep inside
Baby I'm right here

Baby I'm right here
Baby I'm right here
Baby I'm right here
Baby I'm right here
