

Troubled Mind

Dion

Lord, I've been so unhappy everywhere I go
There's nowhere, no place that I know I can find
Peace for my troubled mind I took a boat to China, drifted, drifted to Mexico
But nowhere, no place can I ever ever ever find
Peace for my troubled mind But I had, I had me a girl, she didn't stay long
She left me walkin' in the rain
Oh, how I loved my girl, ah but she did me so wrong
She left me with troubles and pain Oh Lord, I'm so tired, tired of travelin'
Wherever four winds blow
There's just nowhere
No place that I could find
