The Way It Ends

Landon Pigg

Run
Is this to be our fate?Hide
Freedom is ours as long as we escapeWe walk in the shadows
We do
... for now, but we all know..Our time is nearIf this is the way it ends
Don't tell me it's meaningless
There'll be no compromise
We fall and we too shall rise
You held me and taught me how
I think I am ready now
If this is the way it ends
This is the way it's meant to beWe will be spelled in blood
And this is the way that they'll remember us
Emerge from the shadows.. we will..
Emerge from the shadowsThis is the way it ends
Don't tell me it's meaningless
There'll be no compromise
We fall and we too shall rise
You held me and taught me how
I think I am ready nowIf this is the way it ends
This is the way it's meant to beUnder my skin they fade away
Here's to life with no regrets
See you again all one day
Give me love or give me death
Can anyone ever really say..This is the way it ends
This is my life begins
If this the way it ends
Nothing is meaningless
There'll be no compromise
We fall and we too shall rise againIf this is the way it ends
Then this is the way it's meant to be
This is the way it's meant to be
