Archetype X

Jordan Paul

Archetype X why were you born
To torment me to be my Denna
With ocean-eye and fair complected
Archetype X why were you bornEasy charm, flies to honey
All your streets are paved with goldArchetype X why were you born
I want to know you
While you were on your own
What did you learn
I want to know your truth
Archetype X why were you born
To challenge me and be my teacher
When all your beauty starts to fade
Archetype X where will you goYour mask will fade, the truth uncovered
How will you look when you've grown old
Archetype X why were you born
I want to know you
While you were on your own
What did you learn
I want to know your truth
