

Regret

Tantric

Should I try and cut myself for you?
And do I have to let it bleed with no regard?
Tell me just exactly what to do?
Im afraid that I have gone too far'Cuz I dont know just what youre feeling yet
All I know is we both share regrets
We havent done this yet
There's nothing here we cannot changeI could never find myself without you
You could never be yourself without me
Why even try to lie or ignore the truth?
Is there someone else that I should be? No'Cuz I dont know just what youre feeling yet
All I know is we both share regrets
We havent done this yet
There's nothing here we cannot change
Ah, we cannot changeAll I know is we both share regrets'Cuz I dont know just what youre feeling yet
'Cuz I dont know just what youre feeling yet
All I know is we both share regrets
We havent done this yet
There's nothing here that we can change
