Clipse

I'm a champion, shorty, I'm a champion
I've been around the map now I'm on my victory lap, hey, hey
See I'm a champion, shorty, I'm a champion
While other  crashing 'em, hey, I'm just steady mashin' 'em Tell 'em what you told me
(Okay)

Tell 'em what you told me They see I'm shining dog, you see these diamonds dog
They say I'm shining so hard I like to blind 'em dog

My  keeps the newest and the latest
A street nigga, she know I'm the greatest, hey, hey Hold up that Rosea, pourin' half the bottle out
If you from where I'm from, you know where I'm flowin' out
Overcame the odds, so we overdue them cars
We done balled around the world, now we reaching for the stars
Hey, hey I'm a champion, shorty I'm a champion
I've been around the map now I'm on my victory lap, hey, hey
See I'm a champion, shorty I'm a champion
While other  crashing 'em, hey I'm just steady mashin' 'em Tell 'em what you told me

Lord knows I would have been done left this earth

If not yourselves then you need to have them kids in church Mistook my work for selling crack
You should have gotten more out of that than that
My grandma would say you, boy you backwards as a hat
Whether in a trap, NFL draft pick or rap
Virginia is for hustlers, hustlers get it back I thought that life was a bad  bad car
Life is with your kids watching 'Madagascar'
In the headrest of the H3 with crash bar
Rockin' playclothes, everyday's a catwalk I'm a champion, shorty, I'm a champion
I've been around the map now I'm on my victory lap, hey, hey
See I'm a champion, shorty, I'm a champion
While other  crashing 'em, hey, I'm just steady mashin' 'em Tell 'em what you told me
(Okay)

Real  , only champions can talk that Earn my respect,  hating 'cause they want that
Been to hell and back, only champions can walk that Talk that put yo money where yo mouth is T off on the green, golf courses where the house is
A long way from pumping out housing projects
Investing in real estate weighing out my prospects I'm a champion, shorty, I'm a champion
I've been around the map now I'm on my victory lap, hey, hey
See I'm a champion, shorty, I'm a champion
While other  crashing 'em, hey, I'm just steady mashin' 'em Tell 'em what you told me
