Hello Hello

Lewis Watson

Hearts get heady, you illuminate the sky
Somewhere steady we hallucinate their eyes
Living life unheady on a planet black and white
But the colour's heavy when it's only you and ISpilling secrets, can we keep this to ourselves
Little whispers, sudden shivers
And for a moment nothing elseHello, hello
Just let me hold you
Your lonely bones
Just let me love you
Hello, HelloHands slip slowly, make a spark under the moon
The stars stay glowing, ablaze beyond the bloom
Won't you say you'll throw me from the shadow that I hold
The hours slowly when it's only me and youSpilling secrets, can we keep this to ourselves
Little whispers, sudden shivers
And for a moment nothing elseHello, hello
Just let me hold you
Your lonely bones
Just let me love youSpilling secrets, can we keep this to ourselves
Little whispers, sudden shivers
And for a moment nothing elseHello, hello (x21)
