

Love Me For What I Am

The Carpenters

We fell in love
On the first night that we met
Together we've been happy
I have very few regretsThe ordinary problems
Have not been hard to face
But lately little changes
Have been slowly taking placeYou're always finding Something is wrong in what I do
But you can't rearrange my life
Because it pleases youYou've got to love me for what I am
For simply being me
Don't love me for what you intend
Or hope that I will beAnd if you're only using me
To feed your fantasy
You're really not in love
So let me go, I must be freeIf what you want
Isn't natural for me
I won't pretend to keep you
What I am, I have to beThe picture of perfection
Is only on your mind
For all your expectations
Love can never be designedWe either take each other
For everything we are
Or leave the life we've made behind
And make another startYou've got to love me for what I am
For simply being me
Don't love me for what you intend
Or hope that I will beAnd if you're only using me
To feed your fantasy
You're really not in love
So let me go, I must be freeAnd if you're only using me
To feed your fantasy
You're really not in love
So let me go, I must be freeYou're really not in love
So let me go, I must be free
