Beautiful

Jimmie's Chicken Shack

It's over now
Still I can't explain it
And that's who we are
I wouldn't try to change a thingWe missed the point
But didn't dodge the scars
See I've learned my lesson
I'm all right so farLost in your outer space
See that I found my place
I want to be where you are, IAnd that's beautiful
That's beautiful
And that's the beauty of beautifulWhy won't you just stay the night over now
You need to escape but you don't know how
I want you to stay as free as you are
I want you right nowFeels like I'm running in place
You put the sun on my face
While I'm shooting down starsAnd I can't wait for the day
When the real you comes out
It's in your eyes and I see
That's it's bound to come outYou say you know what you feel
But the words all come out
Wrong like excuses you made up
Why you won't come outYou bite your tongue 'cause you're scared
That the truth might come out
