Don't Cry for Me

Brownstone

Don't cry for me baby, I'll be back with you one day soon
Don't cry for me baby, I'll be back soonI know that life can make it hard today
When the one you love is gone away
But you have to be strong
You must carry on like loveAlthough time seems that you won't forget
There's always light shining bright within
And we must always understand
Our love is stronger than a man and wider than all of his loveDon't cry for me baby, I'll be back with you one day soon
(Oh yeah)
Don't cry for me baby, I'll be back soon
(I'll be with you soon)
Don't cry for me baby, I'll be back soonStand tall, keep striving to positive
In your memories love will always win
Keep your visions clear and bright
Just take control of lifeI see the sadness that you feel inside
Wipe your tears away, hold your head up high
Believe in love, believe it low
And trust that you will survive and find a piece of mindDon't cry for me baby, I'll be back with you one day soon
(Don't cry)
Don't cry for me baby, I'll be back soon
(No)Don't cry baby dry your eyes
I know every thing's gonna be alright
Don't cry no, no don't cry
Don't cry baby dry your eyes
I know every thing's gonna be alright
Don't cry no, no don't cryDon't cry baby dry your eyes
I know every thing's gonna be alright
Don't cry no, no don't cry
Don't cry baby dry your eyes
I know every thing's gonna be alright
Don't cry no, no don't cryNo, no, no, oh, no, no, no, oh, cry
No, no, no, oh, no, no, no, oh
