

Absent

Autonon

Well now, it seems like more than silence has been broken

And I think I've figured out the dying lie

Yes, the truth is that your dialect is half truth

Another conversation died alone

This is something we've created

Yes, well the sufferments abated

It doesn't have to be a prophecy

We could be both seeking destiny

It's fuckin' down to us and them

You can decide which one wins

Now's the time, are you

The hunter or the fuckin' hunted?

Absent, sometimes it feels like it's us against them

Absent, sometimes it feels like their angers are justified

If it feels like I'm absent from your conversation

Just keep on talkin' and you'll sure find out you're probably right

Now, it seems that there are no easy answers

To the same old question I've imposed

What does it mean? Why would you bother askin' me?

Like it's something I should know

Just 'cuz they paid me to take it

I guess their money gave me credence

Watch our records soar as you slow down

To buy the accident, so sick

Absent, sometimes it feels like it's us against them

Absent, sometimes it feels like their angers are justified

If it feels like I'm absent from your conversation

Just keep on talkin' and you'll sure find out you're probably right

Know that I'll pull your covers, bitch

Yes, I'm fixin' to knock that ego down

Well, I might slap your punk ass to the floor

Stupid motherfucker, nothin' but a buster

Still talkin' shit, devoid of soul, so you dig yourself a hole

Take the fun out, I load the gun for you

Incorrect cause and effect you've been sold

Live in the wrong, so ya live in the lies

Take the fun, load the gun, incorrect

Cause and effect I'm absent

Absent, sometimes it feels like it's us against them
Absent, sometimes it feels like their angers are justified
If it feels like I'm absent from your conversation
Just keep on talkin' and you'll sure find out you're probably right
I don't care, yes you're probably right, I don't care
