Big Teaser

Saxon

Out with the boys, testing my virility
The booze and the music arousing my curiosity
I moved in beside her, asked her to rock and roll with me
'Cause I have her classed, my eyes roam lecherously
Lecherously, lecherously, lecherouslyShe's a big teaser, she's a big teaser
She's a big teaser, she's a big teaser
She's a big teaser, she's a big teaser
She's a big teaser, she's a big teaserI only see her very occasionally
She's leading me on, she's living dangerously
It's easy to see, she's making a fool out of me
Oh, but I ain't no fool, I'll get her eventually Eventually, eventually, eventuallyShe's a big teaser, she's a big teaser
She's a big teaser, she's a big teaser
She's a big teaser, she's a big teaser
She's a big teaser, she's a bigShe's a big teaser, she's a big teaser
She's a big teaser, she's a big teaser
She's a big teaser, she's a big teaser
She's a big teaser, she's a big teaser
She's a big teaser, she's a big teaser
