

That's All There Is to That

Nat King Cole

Did you ever watch the one you love
Slowly drifting away from you?
And you know deep in your heart
There is nothing that you can do
To make her stay
To turn the tide
To ease the pain
That you feel deep inside When her eyes say it's over and done
Then you simply must face the fact
So you leave and you think it over
But you come hurrying back
Hoping she'll change her mind
Praying she'll take you back
But like the lady said
That's all there is to that
