Fashion

Rogue Traders

Fashion is the only cure

It always leaves you wanting more

Fashion people know the score, ohFashion is the only cure

It always leaves you wanting more

Fashion people know the score, oh

FashionI'm just a slave to it allWalking down the street feeling like she is complete

She's got her Gucci, Prada, Louis, Saba, isn't that neat

She thinks that everyone is looking as she's passing them by

And everything looks better with heels three inches highFashion

Step back

Every street's a catwalk

When you?re looking like thatI'm just a slave to it all

Get rich, stay kitch, give me another hit

I'm just a slave to it all

Couture, some more, fashion's the only cureWalking down the street with her new man no one's seen

She's laughing, joking, smiling hoping everyone sees

She's got the perfect guy to match her image alright

She loves it when she sees the girls have envious eyesFashion

Step back

Every street's a catwalk

When you're looking like that Fashion

It's so cool

When life is like a video

And magazine shootI'm just a slave to it all

Get rich, stay kitch, give me another hit

I'm just a slave to it all

Couture, some more, fashion's the only cure Fashion is the only cure

It always leaves you wanting more

Fashion people know the score, ohFashion is the only cure

It always leaves you wanting more

Fashion people know the score, oh

FashionI'm just a slave to it all

Get rich, stay kitch, give me another hit

I'm just a slave to it all

Couture, some more, fashion's the only cureI'm just a slave to it all

Every street's a catwalk

When you're looking like thatI'm just a slave to it all

Couture, some more

Fashion
