

Pussywillows Cattails

Kenny Rankin

pussywillows cattails soft winds and roses Rain pools in the woodland water to my knees shivering, quivering a warm breath of spring pussywillows cattails soft winds and roses catbirds and cornfields daydreams together riding on the roadside the dust gets in your eyes revelling, dishevelling the summer nights can bring pussywillows cattails soft winds and roses slanted rays and colored days start blue horizons naked limbs and weepin's hazy afternoons poising rejoicing the wine cups to bring pussywillows cattails soft winds and roses harsh lights and candle lights wood fire a blazin' soft lips and fingertips resting in my soul treasuring, remembering, the promise of spring
