The Rise

Sully Erna

Breathe deep - Bracing and strong - Coming alive.
Take back all that is lost - Honor your pride.
Generation!
Time stops - Silence is now - Moving around
Hands Raised - Fading to black - Fall to the ground

From within, you'll begin to feel the rise!
Breathe Deep - Wind down - Reach back
Hear the sound - You will see
From within, you'll begin to feel the rise!
That which is like, unto itself is drawn
