

Hopeless Romantic

Meghan Trainor

Ever after comes after we meet
I think the movies were lying to me
    Oh my, how they lie
Know I'm ready to give you my heart
    Just gotta find you so we can start
    Oh yeah, but till then
    I gotta be patient
But I'm tired of waitingI'm just a hopeless romantic
    Looking for love
    I'd risk it all just to have it
    I wouldn't take it for granted
    I'm just a hopeless romantic
    Not giving up
Cause I deserve to find my own
    I can feel it in my bones
Yes, I know you're somewhere close
Giving me hopeBet we met at a party before
    You were sweet and held open the door
    Oh my, I should've said hi
    So if you're out there
    And hearing this song
    Just know I'm here
    And you're taking too long
    Baby, come and find me
    Cause I've been so patient
And I'm sick of waitingI'm just a hopeless romantic
    Looking for love
    I'd risk it all just to have it
    I wouldn't take it for granted
    I'm just a hopeless romantic
    Not giving up
Cause I deserve to find my own
    I can feel it in my bones
Yes, I know you're somewhere close
Giving me hope, oh yes, you areUnder these stars and under the moon
    Searching for me and I'm looking for you
    Show me you're out there
Tell me youYou're just a hopeless romantic
    And you're looking for love

You'd risk it all just to have it
You wouldn't take it for granted I'm just a hopeless romantic
    Looking for love
    I'd risk it all just to have it
    I wouldn't take it for granted
    I'm just a hopeless romantic
        Not giving up
    Cause I deserve to find my own
        I can feel it in my bones
Yes, I know you're somewhere close
        Giving me hope
