Cannon

Cannon
Are you unnecessary noise?
Cannon
Firing on all of your toys
Cannon
Thinks we're the same but we are
Cannon
Destiny's towing your carWhen fire meets powder
You take your cover
I fly over and
When fire drowns water
It spreads it farther
Out of my handsAsking advice from all the clowns
Cannon
Take your frustrations to the ground
Cannon
They wait in the wings for you to fall
Cannon
Can't you make dust of them all?When fire meets powder
You run for cover
I fly under and
When fire drowns water
Don't even bother
Out of my handsIn some untimely way
The world asked us to leave
Suddenly we're afraid
No longer can we stay
The thread of life was strung to
Each and every one
I knew it all along
Your call to arms was wrongCannon
Are you just unwanted noise?
Loose cannon
Remember all those you destroyWhen fire meets powder
The strongest cower
Half heart, underhand
When fire drowns water
It spreads it farther
Out of my hands
