

Always Be True (feat. Transit)

Makeshift Innocence

Got no feelings
left to say
all the things
I should have said today I guess it all can wait till tomorrow
oeo
oeo oeo to hopefully find
the courage
to tell you
just how I really feel about you ive been struck down by the cupid What if I said that I do love you
What if I told you to my heart
ill be true ooooooh
oeo oeo TRANSIT They miss I cant tell ya the procedure dont want to be too eager when I see ya I just wanna be cool calm and collected and hide the fact that I just want to kiss below your necklace so youll have to excuse me when im stuttering my sentences and tell you of your beauty funny thing is I get paid to write sentences but I become speechless What if I said
that I do love you
What if I told you to my heart
oeo oeo So now I cant find
the ways to hide it
the way you always bat

your little eyelids
makes my heart pump
in and out
oeo
oeo
oeoIf only I had
what it took to tell you
but I cant seem to find the breath
