Girls Like Mystery

The Cribs

There's not much to say to me
That's okay, you know that girls like mystery
They'll know all the things I've had
Thatâ€™s okay, it don't necessarily make it bad

Leave me alone, I'm just your enemy
I've seen it all, I've seen your jealousy

They say, love me till the end
They only see me as a friend
We leave a lot to be desired
I don't care about desire

They say, love me till the end
They only see me as a friend
We leave a lot to be desired
I never wanted to be desired

There's not much to say to me
That's okay, you know that girls like mystery
Keep your clothes as your dignity
After all, it's only two years history

Oh, leave me alone, I'm just your enemy, oh
I've seen it all, I've seen your jealousy

They say, love me till the end
They only see me as a friend
We leave a lot to be desired
I don't care about desire

They say, love me till the end
They only see me as a friend
We leave a lot to be desired
I never want to be desired

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
