

Waiting

Pennywise

Waiting is here
Everything in my mind is clear
Never going back to a world that sings
Never going back, never fade away Everything's broke Gotta get back to a place i know
Never going back to a world that sings
Never going back, never fade away
Never Fade AWAY....Waiting!
He'll report either way
Try to get home
Try to find a way insideWaiting!
Looking for another way
Try to get home
Try to find a way inside
Waiting!Everything changed
Life i know been re-arranged can't wait to make this a memory
Remebering what can't never beYesterdays gone today's the only thing i can count on Future is the only hope for me
But until then i'll always be I'll always be.....Waiting!
He'll report either way
Try to get home
Try to find a way insideWaiting!
Looking for another way
Try to get home
Try to find a way inside
Good looking out this time
Waiting!Waiting!
He'll report either way
Try to get home
Try to find a way insideWaiting!
Looking for another way
Try to get home
Try to find a way insideWaiting!
He'll report either way
Try to get home
Try to find a way inside

Good looking out this time
Waiting!
