

Temple Dreaming

Fences

She was such a temple,
Compromised and sinful
Blonde hair, hands down
Movement from the eyes girl,
You will see that you were not alone
But skin and bones Pray with me by dying knife
Down on your knees by the rain, sci-fi
Pray with me by dying knife
Down on your knees by the rain, sci-fi I was such a temple,
Compromised and sinful
Shaved hair, hands down
Seen it in my eyes 'cause I know this body
Isn't mine to hold,
But skin and bones Pray with me by dying knife
Down on your knees by the rain, sci-fi
Pray with me by dying knife
Down on your knees by the rain, sci-fi Now we're dreaming with no ceiling
And I wonder where we are
If it all
Now we're dreaming with no ceiling
And I wonder where we are
If it all Pray with me by dying knife
Down on your knees by the rain, sci-fi
Pray with me by dying knife
Down on your knees by the rain, sci-fi Pray with me by dying knife
Down on your knees by the rain, sci-fi
Pray with me by dying knife
Down on your knees by the rain, sci-fi She was such a temple (Hey Hey Hey!)
I was such a temple (Hey Hey Hey!)
She was such a temple (Hey Hey Hey!)
You will see that you were not
I was such a temple
I know this body isn't mine to hold.
