

Vision 13teen * Stone Roses Edge

Vanden Plas

See all the restless souls on a secret mission troopers with impure hearts - ungodly editions i'm the architect of gods sent a thousand eerie fictionsmy creation is a pantheon in the house of sheol this heretic place of might can fulfill the new predictions I will start the apotheosis tonightmidway through the dark you're sentenced to die if you'll not fulfill divine bring the light from the stairway under the sun freyr - find a way
there's a place where souls getting lostat the edge of the world down a shaft below the streets in the abyss of the twilight lies a place where all the roses turn to stoneupstream on Æ©livÃgar where the hourglass was flooded you can find a pier and open up the gates so free them now - but soon to returnto save them all love must burn bring the light from the stairway under the sun
freyr - find a way
there's a place where you can be godcalled stone roses edge mementos reloading your brain all seaways there look the same for a few silver pieces you can buy the endso save all your victims - kill all the saints and burn down their promised land bring the light from the stairway under the sun freyr - find awayyou can save them today light - from the stairway under the sun freyr - find away
there's a place where you can be god at stone roses edge
