

A Passed Life

Fozzy

Mystery finds me in darkness
Sun won't shine
Blistering pain from a passed life
Cross that line Into the moonlight I ride
One way trip to the other side
Into the moonlight I ride
Losing my grip I cannot hide Standing on top of a mountain
Long way down
Hearing the voice of a madman
Hit the ground Into the moonlight I ride
One way trip to the other side
Into the moonlight I ride
Losing my grip I cannot hide Into the casket I go
Debt has been paid seeds have been sown
End of the line all that I know Into the inferno I crawl
Licking the flames tasting my fall
Melting away sirens that call Into the moonlight I ride
One way trip to the other side
Into the moonlight I ride
Losing my grip I cannot hide Dreaming about
My passed life Into the moonlight I ride
One way trip to the other side
Into the moonlight I ride
Losing my grip I cannot hide Oh I can't hide
From my passed life Oh I can't hide
From my passed life
