

I Never Met A Woman

Los Lonely Boys

I never met a woman
That makes me feel like you do
There's something 'bout you, baby
That makes me wanna be with you I never thought
I'd ever feel this way
Your love is warm
It takes me to another place, ooh, yeah You bring me light
You take away my pain
I'll hold you tight
And baby, we can fly away 'Cause you're an angel, a blessing
You're sent from above
I want ya, I need ya
I've prayed for your love I said, I never met a woman
That makes me feel like you do
There's something 'bout you, baby
That makes me wanna be with you, oh Take all I have, baby
It may not be much
But I can love you
With every single touch Tu eres un angel, de el cielo
Una bendicion
Te quiero, te adoro
Rezo por tu amor An angel, a blessing
You're sent from above
I want ya, I need ya
I've prayed for your love I never met a woman
(Nunca conocido a una mujer)
That makes me feel like you do
(Feels so good) There's something about you, baby
(Ay algo en ti mujer)
That makes me wanna be with you
Yeah, yeah [Foreign content]
