

Out of Blues

Distorted Penguins

Sit and wait for things to change but it seems like
They never will I wish for better days to come.
Maybe one day you'll wake up and see, the only one
Want is me, your heart is locked and I'm the key. I wish for lonely days to end
And happy days to start again What can I do what can I say to let
You know I feel this way
Because I haven't got a clue.
How can I change what must I be
I just want you to want me
Until I have gotten you, I'll be runnin' out of blues. I wonder where you are tonight and why you
Can't see in black and white
You know that you should be with me.
I've got this emptiness inside I think you could Fill it up alright, and once again I could believe
In myself. Wait till lonely days are through
Want to spend happy days with you
Tell me what I've gotta do, in order to win instead of lose.
