Heading for the Sun

Alexisonfire

They are the nameless victims of a generation lost

Searching for somewhere to exist

Held captive by our mistakes, weak and unable to resistResentful minds have ruled too long

You get old, weak and strongWe'll drag our hindsight through the twilight of this era

To where our freedom reign and the old thought is laid to dust

Let the philistines wallow in their decadence

While the enlightened minds usher in the dawning of a newWe are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sunTime will come when we are all condemned

For all the damage we have done

Held accountable for all battles lost, battles wonWe are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sunAnd the earth will coil each year getting closer to its end

What will our lesson be when we are all ablaze?

That our benevolence was the start of our decay

Or that we did not learn from the mistakes of the past? We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun, we are

We are heading for the sun
