Dear Life

Chantal Kreviazuk

You'll never know how you run me down
And I don't even need you, no
And still you keep me holdin' on
Just for dear lifeIf you live a loveless life
Just blame it on me
On the count of oblivion
I'm guiltyNo, we've never been away from here
So we'll try to lose ourselves again
No, we've never been away from here
So we'll try to lose ourselves againI'm over playin' with your massive ego
Still I keep on holdin' on for dear lifeNo, we've never been away from here
So we'll try to lose ourselves again
No, we've never been away from here
So we'll try to lose ourselves againWhen you're cold and under the covers
Does it ever bother you
Do you remember how warm the truth is
How can you live without itNo, we've never been away from here
So we'll try to lose ourselves again
No, we've never been away from here
So we'll try to lose ourselves againWe've never been away from here
So we'll try to lose ourselves again
We've never been away from here
So we'll try to lose ourselves again
