NO EXCUSES

NEEDTOBREATHE

I've got this feeling in my bones
But you find a solace in shadows
I don't want to find out you're going 'round my back
Why you gotta bring me these sorrowsCause there's no excuses for what you're doing
There's no excuses for what you're doingGirl I've been your lover since high school
Everything I did I did for you
If you're gonna tighten this rope around my neck
Girl you better know I'm gonna fight itCause there's no excuses for what you're doing
There's no excuses for what you're doing
