

Wanted

Jessie James

I wanna lie in my bed and do nothing
I don't care what anyone says
I got you on my mind, I'm thinking 'bout one thing
Gonna show you how I do it best Put my lips on your mouth, keep you coming around
'Cause I like it
Put your hands on my hips, take me down, sink this ship
Boy I can't resist! I wanna wear my hair wild in a mess
Cut-off jeans, can you get with that?
Give you something like you've never had
'Cause I only wanna be wanted by you I wanna tease you till you're begging me
And you're on your knees and it's hard to breathe
And every other time's just a memory
'Cause I only wanna be wanted by you Those other guys when they call I might answer
But you're the one I'm thinking 'bout
So baby don't disappoint, just move faster
And show me what you're feeling now Put your lips on my mouth, keep it coming around
'Cause I like it, yeah
Nothing's wrong, it's alright, you got permission from me tonight
So turn off the lights! Turn off the lights! I wanna wear my hair wild in a mess
Cut-off jeans, can you get with that?
Give you something like you've never had
'Cause I only wanna be wanted by you I wanna tease you till you're begging me
And you're on your knees and it's hard to breathe
And every other time's just a memory
'Cause I only wanna be wanted by you Now I'm going crazy, I'm tired of waiting
My lips are on fire, I just want you to know
I'm losing my patience for the time that you've wasted Put your lips on my mouth
Put your lips on my mouth
Put your lips on my I wanna wear my hair wild in a mess
Cut-off jeans, can you get with that?
Give you something like you've never had
'Cause I only wanna be wanted by you I wanna tease you till you're begging me
And you're on your knees and it's hard to breathe
And every other time's just a memory
'Cause I only wanna be wanted by you I wanna wear my hair wild in a mess
Cut-off jeans, can you get with that?
Give you something like you've never had
'Cause I only wanna be wanted by you I wanna tease you till you're begging me
And you're on your knees and it's hard to breathe

And every other time's just a memory
'Cause I only wanna be wanted by you
