Colorful Raindrops

Nat & Alex Wolff

She said, "lets go take a walk, nothing bad i just wanna talk to you, for the last time"

Pain struck, with no warning sign, im bout to cross the line, turing back

Sometimes the unbreakable breaks in half, sometimes the unexpected happens too, sometimes the inexcusable is excused

Life isnt life when things arnt fair, love isnt love when your not there, the heart is a painful thing to share,
Colorful raindrops everywhere

Stomp, stomp your stepping on my heart your stepping on it, why?, i wanna cry

Bang, bang your shooting at my brain, your making me insane, heaven bells wont ring

Sometimes the unbreakable breaks in half, sometimes the unexpected happens too, sometimes the inexcusable is excused

Life isnt life when things arnt fair, love isnt love when your not there, the heart is a painful thing to share,
Colorful raindrops everywhere

LA LA LA LA LA LA LA LA LA *6

Theres colorful raindrops everywhere, Hoo-Ooh

Theres colorful raindrops everywhere

Life isnt life when things arnt fair, love isnt love when your not there, the heart is a painful thing to share,
Colorful raindrops everywhere
