

You're Killin' Me

Jeremy McComb

Im here to tell you that im leavin'
And I dont love you, I never did
There aint much to say now,
Cept' im sorry, that I let this carry away

I want back all you took
Im walkin away without a second look

(chours)

And its so hard to tell you that im leavin
Im not comin back, to what you do to me
There was times when I thought I wanted you in my life
But now I see, whiskey your killin' me

Theres nothin about you I could like
Theres nothin between us, that ever meant a thing
You cant take it for what its worth, either way its over
Im not gettin cought up anymore in your games

Youve got to let me go
I cant take livin with you anymore

Its so hard to tell you that im leavin
Im not comin back, to what you do to me
There was times when I thought I wanted you in my life
But now I see, whiskey your killin' me

Your every lie that I told
Your every promise that I broke
And your the reason for my mistakes

Its so hard to tell you that im leavin
Im not comin back, to what you do to me
And there was times when I thought I wanted you in my life
But now I see, whiskey your killin'

Now I see, your killin me
Hey whiskey, your killin me
Yeah
